

Katrina Brown is a cat volunteer for Williamson County Animal Center. Through the end of September, Katrina has volunteered 1,138 hours in 2020-2021. Katrina spends her day helping adopters find the perfect feline match, training other volunteers, supervising community service workers, and even doing laundry, taking out the trash or doing dishes.

We can count on Katrina to help with just about anything that needs to be done. Her favorite thing is matching adopters with the appropriate cat or kitten for their family and lifestyle. But Katrina is a servant at heart and she looks for things that need to be done and jumps in to do them. No one gives more hours to the shelter than Katrina, and no one has a bigger impact on the outcome of adoptions.
