

Corporate Achievement Award

Bree DeMoss, nominated by Lexi Bolinski, for her leadership as Marketing and Events Manager at Habitat for Humanity Williamson-Maury, where she has transformed fundraising events like Hammers and High Heels, elevated social media and community engagement, and consistently demonstrated passion, creativity, and dedication to serving families and strengthening the community.

Darrell Waltrip Automotive Group, nominated by Greg Broy and Michele Simpson, for its support of Williamson Health and other local organizations through community involvement and partnership.

Kurt Kane, nominated by Nathan Zipper, for his leadership as President and CEO of TruGreen in Williamson County, engaging with local parks and recreation leadership, and supporting the community by sponsoring the Friends of Franklin Parks 4th of July celebration and the 2025 Williamson County Fair.

Nathan Zipper, nominated by Anna Lisa Roberts, for his tireless leadership of a high-performing economic development team at Williamson, Inc., his deep care for his team and community, and his commitment as a graduate of Leadership Franklin, father, husband, and member of Brentwood United Methodist Church.

Summer Sheldon, nominated by Carrie Drury, for her volunteer leadership with Franklin's Sister Cities as a 12-year board member and current Vice President, her professional support of local nonprofits through her work at Southern Events, and her active community involvement with Franklin United Methodist Church and the Leadership Franklin Class of 2026.

Taylor Huskey, nominated by Bree DeMoss, for leading Huskey Truss & Building Supply in a 17-year partnership with Habitat for Humanity Williamson-Maury through consistent material donations, financial sponsorships, hands-on support for builds, including the inaugural Leadership Build, and sponsorship of volunteer events, demonstrating a deep commitment to helping local families achieve safe, stable, and affordable housing.